👮 A BUSY EVENING FOR SPECIAL SERGEANT GILL! 🚓

Last night Special Sergeant Gill had a busy evening. Here's some of what he got up to whilst patrolling Flackwell Heath, Loudwater, Beaconsfield and Wycombe.....

✅ High visibility foot patrols - One property found in darkness with an open door. Property searched and all was in order 👍

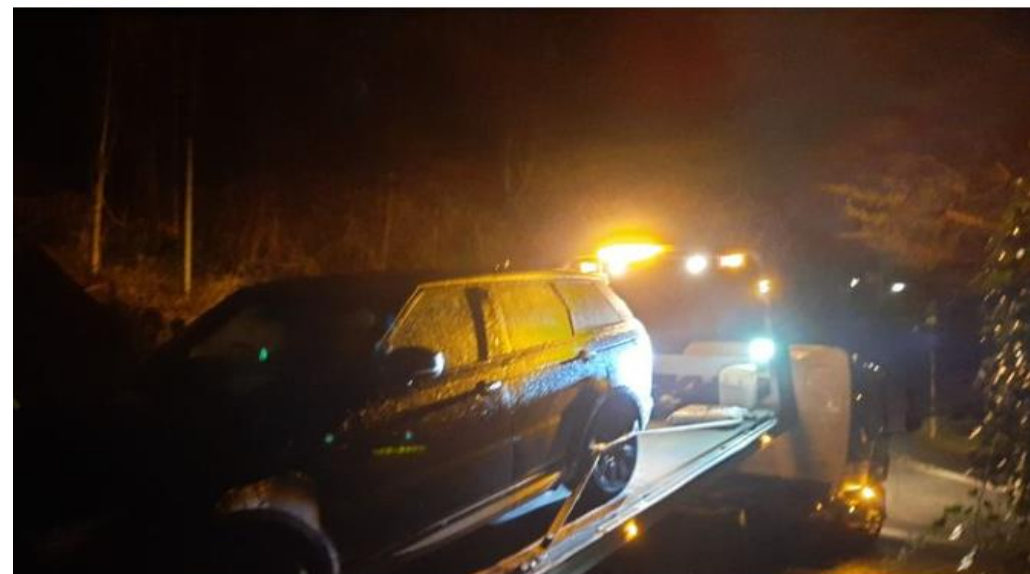

✅ Speed enforcement checks - Although everyone kept to the speed limit, a couple of vehicles were stopped for minor defects and for driving without due care. One driver stopped and reported for using a handheld mobile whilst driving.

✅ Two stolen vehicles recovered 👍

Responding to concerns of untaxed vehicles, yesterday, officers from Chesham & Amersham Neighbourhood Teams supported NSL (Working for the DVLA). Approximately 50 vehicles clamped, 6 recovered & numerous fines issued.

Receiving feedback after the operation, it does appear that some owners are reliant on "reminders" or have forgotten to change their registration details.

To check your vehicle is taxed, you can visit: <https://orlo.uk/i1SDR>

When renewing, you should be given the option to remind via post, text and or email.

Ahead of International Women's Day this Friday, I visited The Misbourne School today as part of a day of talks and workshops organised by Wycombe Youth Action, celebrating the power of women!

I talked about careers in TVP, as well as women in policing over the years, and there were a few shocked faces on learning that..

👮‍♀️ The first female police officer in the UK was appointed in 1915

📏 The minimum height requirement for female police officers used to be 5'4" but was dropped by all forces by 1990

👛 Female officers used to be issued skirts and handbags!

Pleased to say there is no longer a minimum height for male or female police officers, and any requirements to join are the same for both men and women. Personally as well I am glad we no longer have to contend with chasing anyone whilst wearing a skirt! So ladies, there's nothing holding you back!
